Review: Popular magazine articles. Compilation of four articles which originally appeared in the periodical Chan-wang Chou-k'an. Contributors include T'ao Ta-yung, popular economic writer, and Ma Yin-ch'u, economist and one of the vice-chairmen of the Committee on Economic and Finances. T'ao's article, "Land Reform and the New Democracy Revolution," is a doctrinal essay on the destruction of feudalism. "Why the Rich Peasant Must Be Preserved" is the title of Ma's essay which simultaneously calls for an orderly elimination of landlord exploitation and tolerance of capitalism - for possibly 20 to 30 years. The two remaining articles deal with land reform and the expansion of agricultural production and the differentiation of class status in the countryside.
